

CRC Scavenger Hunt

Steps to Conducting a CRC scavenger hunt:

1. Select a career that you would like to know more about.
2. Read each question and answer it using the resources in the CRC.
3. If you need help, ask for assistance.

What is the occupation that you have chosen to research:

What are the average number of hours per day and days per week that a person works in this occupation?

How can you find associations for this field? List below the name and address of a related professional society, trade association, labor union, business firm, or educational institution to which you could write for career materials.

What kind of jobs can you get with this major? What resources did you use?

What kinds of activities would a worker in this occupation be doing on a regular basis?

Describe the working conditions for this occupation:

With this occupation, what types of industries, institutions, or businesses would you work in?

What level of education or training would you need to be qualified for this occupation?

What would you expect to earn as a starting salary for this occupation?

What other occupations are similar to this one?

What is the outlook for employment for your occupation through the year 2005?

List one place where you could obtain more information about your occupation?

What major binder would contain more information on this occupation?

What computer program will provide a comprehensive description of this occupation?

Find an internet site that would provide job opportunities for this occupation?