

Sixth International Film Festival set for March 8-10

Georgia Southern's Department of Foreign Languages will hold its sixth annual International Film Festival Tuesday, March 8, through Thursday, March 10, in Room 1124 of the College of Business Administration. Admission is free, and all films have English subtitles. The keynote speaker for the festival will be Dominican writer Angela Hernandez.

Tuesday, March 8

4:15 p.m.-6:30 p.m. Monsoon Wedding (India, 2002)
Presenter: Dr. Guatam Kundu (Dept. of Literature and Philosophy)

7:00 p.m.- 9:30 p.m. The Experiment (Germany, 2001)
Presenter: Dr. Catherine Johnson (Foreign Languages)

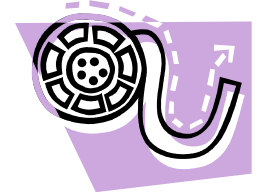

Wednesday, March 9

4:30 p.m.- 6:30 p.m. Nightwatch (Denmark, 1994)
Presenter: Dr. Bruce Krajewski (Dept. of Literature and Philosophy)

Thursday March 10

4:15 p.m. - 6:30 p.m. Au revoir, Les Enfants (France, 1987)
Presenter: Dr. Clara Krug (Foreign Languages)

7:15 p.m. In the Time of the Butterflies (USA, 2001)
Keynote Speaker: Angela Hernandez (Dominican Writer)

Academic Mentor Position

Looking for a leadership opportunity that pays? University Housing has one opening for an academic Mentor in Winburn Hall next year. Tutoring is the main responsibility, about 10 hours a week. Compensation is $2,750 and a single room at the lower, double-room rate. For a full position description, see www.gsuhousing.com or call Chris Caplinger at 486-7521.

High Honors for Georgia Southern Residence Halls

The Georgia Residence Hall Organization recently named Georgia Southern as the School of the Year for its outstanding organizations of campus leaders. Congratulations to the Residence Hall Presidents' Council, the Residence Life Staff Association, and the National Residence Hall Honorary for this honor! Congrats, too, to Bill Pickett, Southern Pines Action Team and NRHH advisor, for being named Advisor of the Year. You make Georgia Southern proud!

Sexual Assault Awareness Week March 7- March 10

During the week, the Clothesline Project will be available at the Russell Union Rotunda for those who wish to participate and create a free t-shirt.

March 9: "Drunk Sex or Date Rape: Can You Tell the Difference?" Nessmith-Lane Building, 7 p.m.
Presented by Brett Sokolow (President of the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management, Ltd.)

March 10: "Take Back the Night," March and Rally.
This event will begin at 5:30 p.m. at the Hanner Field house and will end in the Russell Union Commons area. The rally will be followed by a candlelight vigil and dismantling of the 2005 clothesline.

Women's Week in Olliff Lobby

March 7: New Ways to Exercise, 6:35 p.m.
March 8: Loving Yourself Outside In, 5:10 p.m.
March 9: Sex & Chocolate, 7:10 p.m.
March 10: Serenity Breakfast, 8:30 a.m.

Spotlight On . . . Dr. Donnie Richards

Dr. Donnie Richards is an Associate Professor of Spanish and the Chair of the Department of Foreign Languages. Among the courses he teaches are Spanish Grammar and Composition and Spanish Stylistics. Dr. Richards is originally from Lubbock, Texas, where he grew up speaking Spanish. He has been at Georgia Southern for 14 years. Dr. Richards states that he enjoys the caliber of students that attend Georgia Southern and also enjoys the understanding and encouragement from upper-level administration. Dr. Richards obtained both his bachelor's and master's degree from Texas Tech University. He earned his Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of Kentucky. In his spare time, Dr. Richards enjoys reading, jogging, traveling with his family, playing bridge, and judging national level cheerleading competitions. His advice to students is to, "Get the best education that you can get! You will never regret a college degree!"

Considering Dropping a Course?

The last day to withdraw from a class without academic penalty is this Monday, March 7. There are sometimes good reasons for dropping a course this late, but it is not a cure-all. Know the consequences of your actions for your degree program and financial aid. If you have questions, contact your academic advisor, your financial aid counselor. You can withdraw on WINGS until 11 p.m. on Monday, but don't wait until the last minute! If you think you may need assistance, remember that the Registrar's office in Rosenwald closes at 5 p.m.

National Student of the Month!

Beth Freeman of Southern Pines was named the National Student of the Month for October 2004 for her contributions to the residence hall through her leadership of the NRHH chapter, her numerous community service projects and service to the state and local residence hall organizations. In recognition of this outstanding achievement, Beth was presented with a $50 gift certificate to the University Store, a $50 credit to her Eagle Express account and a $100 credit toward her Fall 2005 housing. Way to go Beth!

Lewis and Clark at the Library

Henderson Library will host a reception to open an exhibit entitled, "Lewis and Clark at the Library: A Bicentennial Commemoration of the 1803-1806 Journey of the Corps of Discovery" on March 8, 2005 from 11 a.m. to noon on the library's main floor. Dr. Steffen from the History Department is the guest speaker. Culinary treats made from recipes featured in The Food Journal of Lewis and Clark will also mark the occasion. A special display devoted to Sacajewea, the Shoshone female guide/interpreter on the expedition, will honor Women's History Month as well. The exhibit runs from March 8-31. For more information contact JoEllen Broome at 912-486- 7823.

What's Happening Around Campus?

Sunday, March 6

Baseball vs. Buffalo, 1:30 p.m,
Men's Tennis vs. UNC Greensboro,
1 p.m.

Monday, March 7

"Sex Talk and Blow Pops," Veazey
Lobby, 7 p.m., Come out and become more sexually aware.

Tuesday, March 8

Softball vs. Tennessee Tech, 3 p.m.
"Sexual Positions Part II," Winburn Lobby, 8 p.m.
Faculty Recital, Carol A. Carter Recital Hall, 8 p.m.
"Open Mic Night," Winburn Lobby, 9 p.m.

Wednesday, March 9

Kappa Delta's "War of the Wings" fundraiser, KΔ house,
3-6 p.m. Proceeds from the event will go to Prevent Child Abuse America.
"Coffee House," SC clubhouse, 7 p.m. Free coffee and hot cocoa, poetry and prose readings.
Venice Baroque Orchestra and The Labeque Sisters,
Performing Arts Center, 8 p.m. For tickets call the box office at 486-7999.

Thursday, March 10

"Scholarship Information Session," SC clubhouse, 6 p.m.

Closing in May . . . Jobs for Summer

Hard to believe it, but exams and the closing of the residence halls are just around the corner. Unless you live in Southern Courtyard, you'll need to check out of your current assignment within 24 hours of your last exam and no later than May 7 at noon. If you have stuff lying around your room that you don't use, consider taking it home over break! Would you rather stay on campus this summer, take classes and work for housing? Compensation packages include a stipend and a housing allowance. See www.gsuhousing.com, then "employment," then "summer" for position descriptions.