

Sexual Assault Awareness Week

March 6-9: Clothesline Project: Survivors of sexual and domestic violence are invited to decorate an appropriately colored shirt that will then be displayed on the clothesline in the University Rotunda (behind Russell Union). Previous years displays can be viewed in the RAC and Russell Union.

March 7, 12-1 p.m.: Adjudicating Sexual Assault Cases. Bulloch County Judicial Annex, Boardroom. Legal and Law enforcement personnel are invited to this special workshop presented by Brett Sokolow, JD, Founder of the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management.

March 7, 7-8 p.m.: Drunk Sex or Date Rape: Can You Tell the Difference? Presented by Brett Sokolow, J.D. Nessmith-Lane Continuing Education Auditorium.

This chilling presentation presents the audience with facts of an actual case. The audience is then given the opportunity to rule as to whether or not a sexual assault had been committed. The real life outcome is revealed and legal points explained by an expert in the field of sexual assault adjudication.

March 9, 5:30 p.m. Take Back the Night March and Rally. Beginning at Hanner Field House and ending at University Rotunda.

This international annual event raises awareness for each community's dedication to eradicating sexually and domestically violent crimes. Come add your presence! Free t-shirts and give-a-ways to the first 150 participants. The March is immediately followed by a rally including victims' testimonials and guest speakers.

March 9, 6:30 p.m. Candlelight Vigil. University Rotunda.

Candles will be lit in memory of those lost through sexual and domestic violence. The 2006 Clothesline project will be dismantled.

Considering Dropping a Course?

The last day to withdraw from a class without academic penalty is this Monday, March 6. There are sometimes good reasons for dropping a course this late, but it is not a cure-all. Know the consequences of your actions for your degree program and financial aid. If you have questions, contact your academic advisor, your financial aid counselor. You can withdraw on WINGS until 11 p.m. on Monday, but don't wait until the last minute! If you think you may need assistance, remember that the Registrar's office in Rosenwald closes at 5 p.m.

What's Happening on Campus?

Tuesday, March 7, 2006, "Treat Her Like a Lady". Come and participate as MAP discusses how men and women relate to one another, Russell Union Rm. 2041. This program is open to everyone.

Mud Volleyball Tournament!

Help others while getting dirty! Form co-ed teams of 6-10 Georgia Southern students or staff and play mud volleyball to benefit victims of Hurricane Katrina. Team registration forms are due March 8, 2006. Visit <http://students.georgiasouthern.edu/volunteer/> for more details and to download a copy of the registration materials.
