President's Corner

As we continue to get busier and busier with classes, involvement, or any other activities it is easy sometimes to get lost in the mix. Commitments we made or things we told ourselves we were going to get done, they seem to take a backseat as we continue to get busy in the daily grind. Many of us will continue to make excuses saying we just don't have time or we're too tired. The problem with this is that it is usually the things that we want to do for ourselves that take this backseat. Regardless of whether it is at the top of your priority list or not, it is important to understand that we all have the power to decide what we want to do with our time. Charles Bruxton said, "You will never "find" time for anything. If you want time, you must make it." Start making time for the things that are most important to you!

Let's make every week amazing.
