Attendance Verification

Check your attendance verification on WINGS! Some students have not been verified and others have been verified as “not attending”.

This can affect your financial aid as well as your VA. If there is a problem, check with the professor of the class in question to get your attendance properly verified. You can check your attendance on WINGS.

P.E. Credits

If you are a new student and have military service, please supply a copy of your DD-214 to the Admissions office so that your P.E. credits can be awarded. VA will not pay for you to take these classes. If you have satisfied your P.E. requirements by taking the classes elsewhere, you may not be eligible for additional credits.

New Chapter 1607!

If you are a Reservist or National Guard person, you may be entitled to additional benefit of you were activated for military service on or after 09-11-02. If you are  interested, please contact this office if you wish to apply. Also, please inquire with your unit if you are not receiving Tuition Assistance. You may be eligible!

Please check www.gibill.va.gov for additional information on the new Chapter 1607

Schedule Changes

If you go on WINGS and drop any classes that change your training time, you need to e-mail or call this office to report the change! It will affect your pay!
