Office of Fraternity and Sorority Relations Student Learning Outcomes

The Office of Fraternity and Sorority Relations strives to enable each fraternity and sorority member at Georgia Southern University to develop as leaders with a heightened sense of responsibility to each community that they are a part of, now and in the future. Students will develop leadership skills that allow them to utilize critical and reflective thinking. They will acquire and value gaining a consciousness of self. Students who participate in fraternity and sorority life will . . .

1. Clarify their personal and organizational values
   a. Articulate personal and organizational values to people outside of the fraternity and sorority community
   b. Act in congruence with personal and organizational values
   c. Make decisions that reflect personal and organizational values

2. Develop and display personal leadership skills
   a. Articulate a personal leadership philosophy and style
   b. Comprehend group dynamics
   c. Exhibit the ability to visualize a group purpose and desired outcomes

3. Engage in healthy behaviors
   a. Choose behaviors and environments that promote health and reduce risk
   b. Exhibit behaviors that advance a healthy community

4. Develop and maintain meaningful interpersonal relationships
   a. Establish mutually rewarding relationships with friends and colleagues
   b. Listen to and considers others’ points of view
   c. Treat others with respect

5. Learn and articulate the value of collaboration
   a. Seek the involvement of others
   b. Seek the feedback of others
   c. Contribute to the achievement of a group goal

6. Display a sense of social responsibility
   a. Understand and participate in relevant governance systems
   b. Understand and abide by community standards
   c. Participate in service/volunteer activities

7. Develop personal goals
   a. Set, articulate, and pursue personal goals
   b. Use personal goals to guide decisions